

Branch closure feedback – how we responded and supported our customers

Before we decided to permanently close the Kingsbury branch, we carried out a thorough review to understand how our customers and the community would be impacted. We're now near to the closure of this branch, which will close on 7th November 2024.

Your nearest branches to the Kingsbury branch are Edgware branch and Harrow branch. You can also use any Lloyds Bank branch to do your banking. Go to lloydsbank.com/branchfinder for more information.

Communicating this change to customers

When we announce that a branch is closing, we take a number of factors into account in line with Financial Conduct Authority guidance. We've summarised these in the Branch Review Document, which you can find at lloydsbank.com/branchclosures

We wrote to customers who use the Kingsbury branch, to let them know it would be closing. We explained about the other ways they can continue to do their banking with us.

We displayed a poster in the branch to let customers know it was closing. Our colleagues there spoke to customers about other ways to do their banking. These include using our Mobile Banking app, Internet Banking, calling us, or using the Post Office®. We let customers know the nearest alternative branches, free cash machines and Post Office.

We contacted members of the local community

Who we contacted to understand the impact of the branch closure

- The local MP for Brent North.
- Banking Team and Senior Representatives from the Post Office.
- Post Office Area Manager responsible for nearest three Post Offices to our closing branch.
- National Federation of Sub Postmasters.
- Brent Citizens Advice Bureau.
- London Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The feedback we received

- Our customers were disappointed with the decision to close. We explained about the alternative local banking services available.
- Barry Gardiner MP wrote to us explaining the closure will leave a considerable gap in the community and has asked us to reconsider our decision. We wrote back explaining the decline we have seen in transactions, and the range of alternative banking services available.

What we've done to help make the change smoother

- We've called individual customers we know use the branch as their main way of banking with us, including customers that may need extra support, to talk to them about alternative ways to bank and to provide help if they need it.
- We've introduced a dedicated telephony team to provide support after the branch closes to identified customers who may need extra support.
- We've partnered with the Digital Helpline who offer free one to one guidance over the phone to support customers to use the internet for banking. Customers with an identified need for this service have been provided with contact details enabling them to get free support.
- Our colleagues at Kingsbury branch have been given the training they need to have in-depth conversations with our customers, especially those who may need extra support, about how we can help them.
- Kingsbury branch colleagues held a digital support event to help customers register and use a variety of online and digital services.
